Concordia Church

125th Anniversary Service

Rededication of the Sanctuary & Church Organ

October 21, 2023

concordia church

Love God. Love Your Neighbor.

Concordia Lutheran Church was established on January 29th, 1898 in North Center by Swedish immigrants expanding out of the Andersonville community. The sanctuary we worship in today was completed in 1913. Originally a Swedish Lutheran congregation of the Augustana Synod, Concordia Church moved to English services in 1938 and changed its name to Concordia Evangelical Lutheran Church. The Education and Gym annex was added in 1958.

In the early 1980's, responding to the needs of the community, we developed our first community outreach programs serving neighborhood families with after school and summer camp programs. The creation of a sliding payment scale was implemented to assure access to every family in need of child care without restrictions on their ability to pay. Expanding programs to meet community need, we opened full day preschool programs.

The last 25 years of Concordia ministries have been years of phenomenal expansion for our Social Ministry Organization, Concordia Place, into 4 Chicago communities where our program offerings include infant care, early learning, preschool, school age, and teen youth programs serving over 800 neighbors. Church ministries of Health and Wellness, Church Worship outreach, Music Ministry have all grown in response to community need. You can read more about these Concordia ministries on our website link at concordiafaith.org.

Restrooms are located in the gym and the fellowship hall. To access the gym restroom, exit the sanctuary through the left door behind the altar and follow the hallway down the stairs. To access the fellowship hall, exit the back of the sanctuary, follow the two flights of stairs into the fellowship hall; restrooms are to your right.

We want you to feel as safe and comfortable as possible while at our church. Masks and hand sanitizer are provided for everyone in the back of the sanctuary.

Opening Dialogue: Psalm 95

[1]Come, let us sing | to the LORD;
let us shout for joy to the rock of | our salvation.

[2]Let us come before God's presence | with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to the | LORD with psalms.

[3]For you, LORD, | are a great God,
and a great ruler a- | bove all gods.

[4]In your hand are the caverns | of the earth;
the heights of the hills are | also yours.

[5]The sea is yours, | for you made it,
and your hands have molded | the dry land.

[6]Come, let us worship | and bow down,
let us kneel before the | LORD our maker.

[7]For the LORD is our God, and we are the people of God's pasture and the sheep | of God's hand.
Oh, that today you would | hear God's voice!

Opening Hymn ELW #858 "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty"

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
C: And also with you.

Address by Dan Formeller, Church Council President

Prayer of the Day

O God, you have promised through your Son to be with your church forever. We give you thanks for those who founded this community of believers and for the signs of your presence in our congregation. Increase in us the spirit of faith and love, that we may grow in our love of God and our neighbor. We pray through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

First Reading 1 Kings 8:22-30

Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands to heaven. He said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and steadfast love for your servants who walk before you with all their heart, the covenant that you kept for your servant my father David as you declared to him; you promised with your mouth and have this day fulfilled with your hand. Therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant my father David that which you promised him, saying, 'There shall never fail you a successor before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children look to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.' Therefore, O God of Israel, let your word be confirmed, which you promised to your servant my father David. But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Even heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you, much less this house that I have built! Regard your servant's prayer and his plea, O LORD my God, heeding the cry and the prayer that your servant prays to you today; that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may heed the prayer that your servant prays toward this place. Hear the plea of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place; O hear in heaven your dwelling place; heed and forgive.
L: This is the Word of God.
C: Thanks be to God.

Choir Anthem "Dear Land of Home" Finlandia by Sibelius

Psalm Hymn ELW #881 "Let All Things Now Living"

Second Reading 1 Peter 2:1-10

Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

For it stands in scripture:

"See, I am laying in Zion a stone
a cornerstone chosen and precious and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

To you then who believe, he is precious; but for those who do not believe

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner," and
"A stone that makes them stumble and a rock that makes them fall."

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the mighty acts of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Once you were not a people but now you are God's people once you had not received mercy
but now you have received mercy.

L: This is the Word of God.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 1:22-30

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly." Jesus answered, "I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

P: The Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Gospel Acclamation (Repeat Acclamation)

Sermon Rev. Stephen Bouman

Hymn of the Day ELW #576 "We All are One in Mission"

Sanctuary Rededication

A: Brothers and sisters: We have come together to rededicate this sanctuary for the worship of almighty God and for the building up of the body of Christ. From this day forward let it be a place for the gathering of the people of God, a place for proclaiming the Gospel through Word and Sacrament, a place for bringing life and hope to us and to this community.

P: Blessed are you, O Lord our God, King of the universe. The heavens and the earth cannot contain you. Yet you are willing to make your home in human hearts. We are the temple of your presence, and this building is the house of your Church. Accept us and this place to which we come to share with others the covenant you make through Holy Baptism, to praise your name, to receive your forgiveness, to hear your Word, and to be nourished by the body and blood of your Son. Be present always to guide and illumine your people And now, O God, visit us with your mercy and blessing as we rededicate this house to your glory and honor and to the service of all people in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
C: Amen.

A: Let us pray.
Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings with your most gracious favor and further us with your continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name and finally, by your mercy, obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
C: Amen.

The Offering

All gifts in the offering plate during today's service will go toward the music ministry at Concordia Church, in honor of today's organ rededication.

Thank you for supporting our ministries with your financial gifts. Scan the QR code to the left to easily make a one-time gift or establish a recurring gift. See page 27 of this bulletin for instructions.

Offertory Anthem by choir "O God, Our Help in Ages Past"

'A Mighty Fortress is Our God' by Flor Peeters
'Fugue in g' by J. S. Bach BWV 578

Offertory Hymn W&P #150 "We Bring the Sacrifice of Praise"

Offertory Prayer

A: Blessed are you, O God,
C: Ruler of heaven and earth.
day by day you shower us with blessings.
As you have raised us to new life in Christ
give us glad and generous hearts, ready to praise you and to respond to those in need.
Amen.

Organ Rededication

A: We rededicate this organ for the worship of almighty God and for the building up of the body of Christ. May God in our music be glorified, the Gospel proclaimed and this place bring joy and hope to us and to our community.

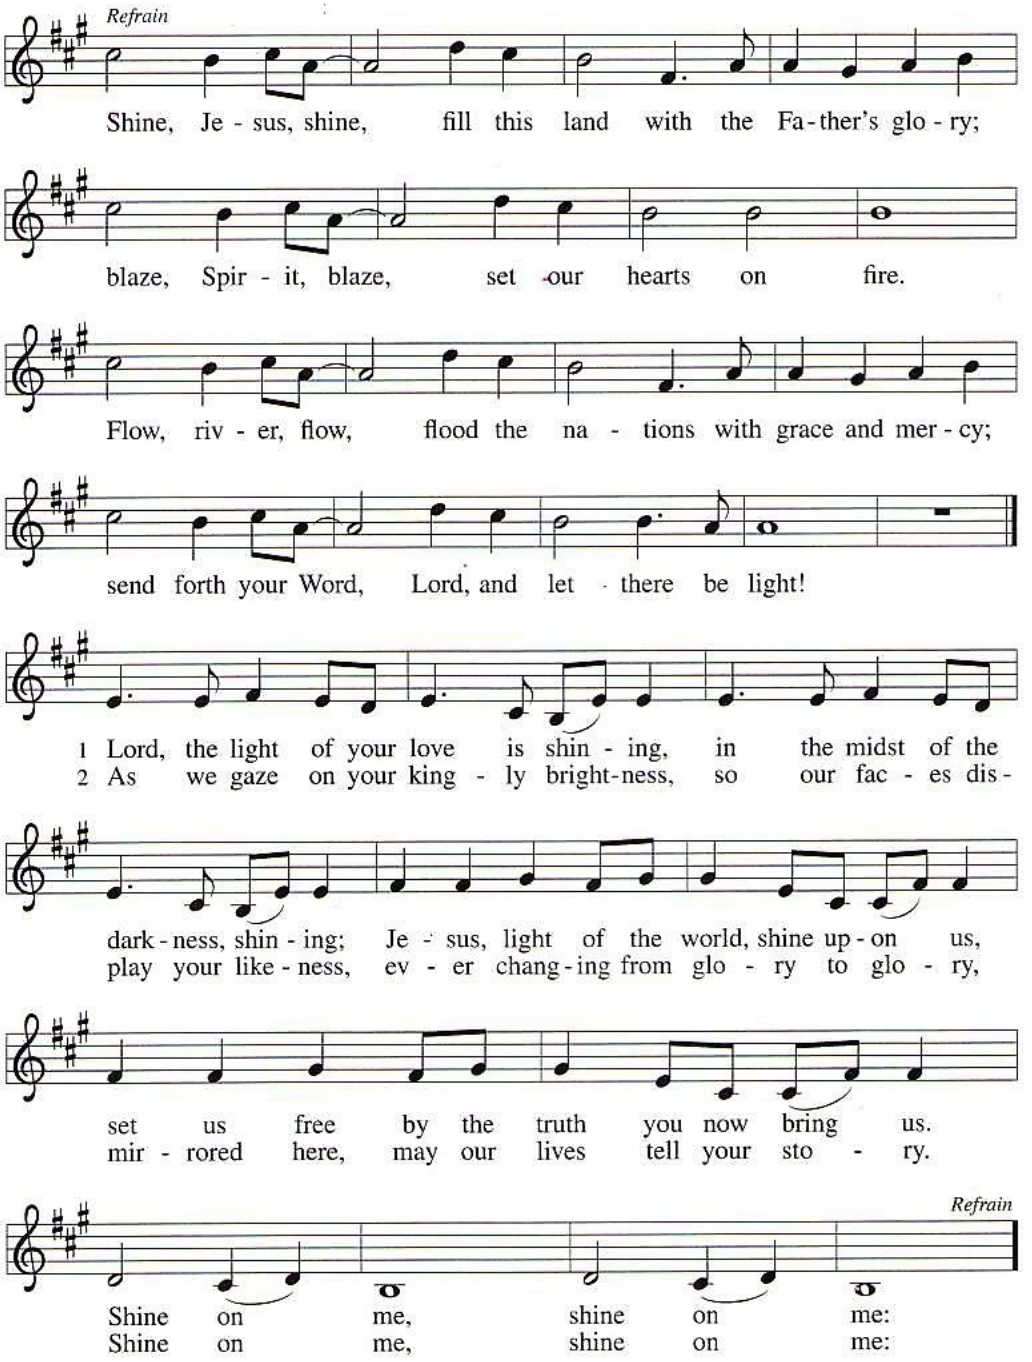

P: Blessed are you, O Lord our God, King of the universe. You have made the whole earth after your glory; all your creatures praise you. We lift our voices to join the sounds and song of heaven and earth, of things seen and unseen, in praise of your glory.

You alone do great wonders, and by your wisdom you made the heavens and the earth. All living things give you praise. You have breathed your breath of mercy into your children, to hear from them a joyful shout with their own song. In the fullness of time, O God, you sang your new song, our Lord Jesus Christ, who is exalted by poets, musicians, and all your saints. Your Spirit is the breath of our music and song.

Be with us now and bless us as we dedicate this organ to your praise and glory. Enrich the lives of your people through it, and grant us faith to hear your gracious purpose in it. By your Holy Spirit, let this organ enliven the proclamation of your Word to the building up of your Church, to the glory of your name, and to the good of all your people; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, through all ages of ages.
C: Amen.

Hymn of Praise

ELW #671 "Shine, Jesus, Shine"

Prayers

A: We give thanks to you, Almighty and Loving God, for the members and the ministry of this congregation:

A: We remember with thanksgiving the Swedish immigrants who traveled from their home country to begin a new life in Chicago and who became the founding members of our church. We give thanks for the vision you blessed them with to begin this congregation,
C: Lord, we give you thanks.

A: We lift up the members and leaders, teachers and staff, administers and supporters who sustain our ministries of worship and music, community service and outreach through Concordia Church and Concordia Place. We give you thanks for blessing them in their work and lives,
C: Lord, we give you thanks.

A: We pray for the gift of your Holy Spirit that we may be inspired to carry our mission forward into the future so that through our service and witness all may know our love of God and all may experience this ministry as an expression of our love for our neighbor in Jesus Christ our Lord.
C: Lord, we give you thanks.

The Lord's Prayer

C: Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Recessional Hymn ELW #720 "We Are Called"

Blessing and Dismissal

P: Go forth in peace and with the courage of faith.
Love God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind,
and love your neighbor as yourself.
C: Amen.

P: Whatever you do in word or deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God through him.
C: Amen.

P: The God of hope fill you with joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.
C: Amen.

P: Almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you now and forever.
C: Amen.

Stephen Bouman has a rich history of leadership in the church, having previously served as its Executive Director for the Domestic Mission Unit of the ELCA, and as Bishop of the ELCA Metropolitan New York Synod. He served over twenty years as parish pastor in New York City. He is a well published author and his two recent books are Baptized for the Moment, and co–author, They are Us: Lutherans and Immigration. His book, The Mission Table: Renewing Congregation and Community is being used by many congregations throughout the church as they do mission planning.
Stephen Bouman was co-founder and President of Lutheran Disaster Response, New York, a response to the September 11, 2001 attacks in New York City and has served on the Board of Directors for Wagner and Wartburg Colleges, Lutheran Services in America and Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Services.

He continues his ministry at Saint Luke's Lutheran Church in Park Ridge, Illinois as their Interim pastor. He is a son of Grace Church and school in River Forest, Illinois.

Organist Biographies

Luke Duroc-Danner is a conductor, organist, and singer. He currently serves as the Organist and Music Director at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Wilmette, IL. He holds a B.A. in music from the University of Chicago where he was awarded honors for his thesis on Mendelssohn's oratorio, Elijah. He also holds a MM in Choral Conducting from the University of Washington where he studied with Dr. Giselle Wyers and Dr. Geoffrey Boers. At the University of Washington, he was the Assistant Conductor of the University of Washington Chorale and later the Co-Conductor of the University Singers.

He studies organ with Dr. Phillip Kloeckner at the Chicago International Organ Academy, and he previously studied with Dr. Carole Terry and Joseph Adam while at the University of Washington. He also appeared as an organist in several concerts and recitals in Seattle. Luke has appeared as an emerging artist with The Strangers Ensemble in 2017-2018. As a pianist, he has appeared as both a soloist and a collaborative pianist – most notably in a performance at the Library of Congress while a Junior Fellow in the Music Division. He has sung with a variety of ensembles in Chicago and Seattle including the Chicago Choral Artists, the Chicago Chorale, the Apollo Chorus, and the UW Chamber Singers in collaboration with Pacific Music Works and Pilobolus Dance. While in Seattle, he gave private voice lessons, and he presented a lecture on the history of oratorio as well as a course, 'Music in Shakespeare,' with the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Washington.

Luke served as Organist and Choir Director at Concordia Church from 2020—2022.

Linda Wiskow DeGuzman Anderson was born in Berlin, Wisconsin. Her undergraduate degree in organ and elementary education was completed at Concordia University, Nebraska where she studied with Charles W. Ore and David Schack. Her master's degree in music education/arts integration was awarded at National Louis University in Chicago.

She was a rostered associate in ministry of the ELCA (and AELC) from 1977-2020. During those years Linda served as Director of Music and elementary educator at St. Luke in Chicago and then minister of music at Concordia Lutheran Church also in Chicago. While at St. Luke she studied organ with Paul Manz. From 1992-2016 she was also a music educator in the Chicago Public Schools, and during that tenure was a regional arts lead liaison, and music assessment creator which helped to drive higher standards for the city arts curriculum. In 2012-2013 Linda worked with YoYo Ma and Renee Fleming in her role as an arts education leader. In 2016, Linda and her first husband, Peter DeGuzman retired to Parrish, Florida, and came out of church music retirement to join the music team of Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church of Sarasota, Florida. Linda resides in Parrish, Florida with her husband, Ted Anderson.

Linda served as Organist and Choir Director at Concordia Church from 1992-2008.

Paul Dykstra has supported choral / keyboard at Temple Sholom of Chicago for 25+ years. A collaborative pianist, he is dedicated to exposing the world to the music lost in the Holocaust of World War II. He has performed at the Singer Festival in Warsaw debuting the piano trio and vocal works of Mieczysław Weinberg and other Jewish composers.

As Musical Conductor of Chicago's Lira Singers and visionary of the Lira Symphony Orchestra, Dykstra spent 15+ years bringing Polish opera and classical music to audiences throughout the United States. He conducted recordings and performances with Lira at Chicago's Symphony Center.

Dykstra is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of South Dakota. He has studied piano with Ani Gogova and Ludmilla Lazar of the Chicago College of Performing Arts and with James Mathis of the Juilliard School. He studied coaching and conducting with Jan Meyerowitz of the Metropolitan Opera while at the American Institute of Musical Studies in Austria.

Paul has been serving as Organist and Choir Director at Concordia Church since fall 2022.

The Concordia Lutheran Church
M.P. Möller Electro-Pneumatic Pipe Organ

In 1923, M.P. Möller of Hagerstown, MD was commissioned to build and to install its opus 3611, a two-manual, electro-pneumatic action organ in the church proper. Purchase of the instrument was made in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the congregation and the tenth anniversary of the church building. The organ still has the original console, although it was moved in 1998 with remodeling of the church building.

In 2012, Ericksen, Christian and Associates of suburban Chicago was hired to “rebuild” the original instrument, which included “releathering” of various stops as well as replacement of broken and missing ivories on the keyboard manuals. With the rebuild a Syndyne Corp. Solid state relay system with transposer and MIDI capability was added including new electrical contacts for all keys and pedals and new electrical switching for all stops and couplers. This system includes 12 levels of memory for “thumb stop” immediate voicing pistons.

Key voice additions in the remodel included new 8’ Trompette and 4’ Principal stops on the “Swell” Division (upper keyboard), a new III Mixture for the “Great” Division (lower keyboard), and new 16’ Posaune (Tuba), 4’ Trumpet and 32’ Resultant (deep, deep bass) stops on the “Pedal” division (concave, radiating pedalboard.)

The organ possesses beautifully rich "orchestral string and wind" colors which enable the organ to not only "ring out" when needed to lead the congregation in hymnody, but also to "accompany" vocalists and instrumentalists with sensitivity and wide dynamic range. It is no surprise that the organ was listed in Volume II of "Pipe Organs of Chicago" due to its inherent beauty.

Join us following the service for a special reception. Space for guests will be available in both the fellowship hall and the gym. Heavy hors d'oeuvres and beverages (alcoholic and non) will be provided. We invite you to eat, drink, and fellowship on this special occasion.

A raffle table is available in the gym; photos of the raffle items are displayed in the fellowship hall. Raffle tickets will be sold during the reception; winners will be announced at 5:30pm. Winners must be present to win. Raffle tickets can be purchased with cash, check, or electronically via Realm (instructions will be provided).

Additionally, you can snap your own memory of today's celebration at the special photo booth located downstairs in the fellowship hall. Special thanks to Katie Bernabei, Annual Fund Director at Concordia Place, for organizing this opportunity for our guests!

A special thanks goes out to everyone who helped plan and coordinate today's events and projects completed in recognition of this occasion. We are grateful for their time, talents, and energy.

Concordia Church Ornament

We are delighted to give each of your households a special ornament to commemorate this celebration! Our 125th Logo was created with special attention to the breadth of our ministries and community engagement. Our Church actively seeks to live by the two commandments our Lord Jesus gave his disciples: "Love God. Love Your Neighbor". Embedded in the anniversary year you will find three logos for our ministries—the 'open heart cross' logo symbolizing our hearts open through God's love to our neighbor, the 'flower people' logo symbolizing our nurture of children, teens and adults at Concordia Place, and the 'shooting star' of Concordia Ministries that symbolizes Concordia Church and Concordia Place together in one family serving people and communities.

125th Anniversary Quilt

A special project completed this year in honor of the 125th anniversary was a community quilt, now on display in the sanctuary. A wealth of gratitude goes to the Logan Street Baptist Church Quilting Group and Nancy Smith for their love and care in quilting together the special squares submitted by our members and friends.

Register today at concordiafaith.org/concerts!

Concordia Place President/CEO

We welcome Grace Araya to the position of CEO/President of Concordia Place. Grace begins in her role on Monday, October 23rd. You can read more about her on the Concordia Place website at https://concordiaplace.org/ceoannouncement.

Upcoming Events

Join us on Sunday, November 12th for our annual Community Thanksgiving Service at 10am. We take this opportunity to express our gratitude for our good gifts, as well as celebrate the relationship between Concordia Church and Concordia Place as we recognize those in our family celebrating employment milestones. We will fellowship over a potluck lunch following the service.

Following the potluck on November 12th, we'll have the third installment of our 'Second Sundays' concert series with our very own Paul Dykstra on piano and Cara Schlecker on violin. This free midday concert (12pm) is open to everyone and we'd love to see you in the audience!

Mark your calendars for Friday, December 15th at 7pm for the Christmas Spectacular with Lakeshore Brass and friends. Lakeshore Brass is a Chicago-based brass quintet, including Concordia Church's two resident A/V techs Matt Flanagan and David Nakazono. This annual Christmas concert is sure to delight your ears and is fun for the whole family! You will be able to purchase tickets beginning in November. Two tickets to the Christmas Spectacular are included in today's raffle!

Support Concordia Church's partnership with the Common Pantry and Swedish Hospital through your donations of food or toiletry items or a monetary gift to this worthy cause. All donations will help sustain a "Take What you Need" food pantry in the lobby of Swedish Covenant Hospital for patients upon their discharge. Bring item donations to the church at any time.
